“The Role of Congress in American Foreign Policy”

Guest Speaker: U.S. Senator (ret.) Larry Pressler

Larry Pressler was a member of Congress (R-SD) for 22 years: 18 in the U.S. Senate, four in the U.S. House. During that period he served as author of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, as Chairman of the Senate Commerce, Science and Transportation Committee, as a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and as Chairman of the European and Asian Subcommittees. Senator Pressler is currently a Senior Fulbright Lecturer at the University of Bologna. He is a Vietnam Combat Veteran (U.S. Army); a former Foreign Service Officer; and a Rhodes Scholar (at Oxford, England). Senator Pressler is a graduate of Harvard Kennedy School of Government (MPA); Harvard Law School (JD); and University of South Dakota (BA).
